

In 2016 I moved to Los Angeles from Chicago.
 I wanted to live closer to my dad's family - who had <sup>just</sup> dropped out of graduate school and was ~~in the area~~ and I wanted to be close to the same for (Also I wanted to be close to the T-Dance community and the spiritual and - same friends Shortly after I moved some friends invited me to an IFA service to learn about IFA started from the when our dinner the host me how IFA was based in Nigeria and was a way for the diaspora transferred to the Caribbean and I had left visited

Friends invited me to go to them to an IFA service in El Estero I didn't know much about IFA except that it was the root of dayna Adwans of and but it has many years of history in Haitian Vodou and is similar (called fros in Vodou) the energy that can it was many years ago, but my mother had had had a close rel. w/ a young (Haitian) doctor on an art trip in Haiti. It had been in line w/ a young Haitian doctor (in the 80s) who introduced me to the spiritual (They said that IFA uses the same knowledge of energetics)

I met Baba after I moved to Los Angeles from Chicago, some friends from the T-Dance community
